

Preface:

Zabuli welfare and educational institution has taken its activities license No: (3479), February 25, 2015, by the ministry of economy. This institution is involved in educational activities, and according to this agreement aims to establish a Razia Jan private Technical and Vocational institute without any exploitation. Therefore, this agreement is signed between TVETA and mentioned institution.

First Section

Goal

The goal is to provide a platform for technical and vocational education through public-private partnerships to enhance the necessary skills of young people, both male and female, according to the needs of the domestic and international job market.

Second section

The Zabuli Welfare and Educational Institution Responsibilities

In this agreement; the Zabuli welfare and educational institution has the following responsibilities:

1. The institution must obtain activities license from the authority, for each new branch;
2. The institution is not allowed to conduct any educational activities, before obtaining a license;
3. Education at this institute is completely free, students will not be charged any fee, under any circumstances;
4. The institution must comply with all law and regulations of the authority and other related regulations regarding institute affairs;
5. The Institution is responsible for applying all quality standards at the institute;
6. Institution must prepare a standardized building for the institute;
7. The institution covers the costs of equipping the institute, and in the event of building renovations, it is obliged to comply with the legal and technical standards, and also paying its expenses. The institution also strives to take care of and maintain the institute;
8. The institution covers all costs of the institute with national and international donors and supporters;

9. Institution is responsible for monitoring all administrative and qualification affairs of the institute;
10. The Institution introduce graduated students of the institute to relevant organizations, for employment purpose;
11. The institute must present all financial achievements, administrative and quality affair reports to the authority every six months;
12. The institution must submit all students` affairs, financial, and administrative tasks to the authority, before canceling the institute;
13. Institution must officially submit all assets of the institute to the authority regarding to the cancellation of the institute.

Availability of the agreement

This agreement is valid for four years after the both sides have signed it, and it is also extendable.

Date: 1443 Hijri Qamari Calendar